Summer Reading is going great! We have had 30-45 children in on Tuesdays to check in with our teacher.

Only one person came to the Literacy Event on July 7th.

Five people have come to our Classic Movie Mondays.

Thirty-five people attend the presentation by Sarett Nature Center last month.

This summer is busier than in the past with tourists. We spend A LOT of our time being tour guides - answering questions about businesses, parking, places to eat; watching children in the tree house whose parents aren't watching them; and cleaning up the bathrooms. Many patrons tell us they will not come to the library on Friday or Saturday because it's too busy and parking is very limited. I say all this because when I am hearing that a large part of the library's millage-paying residents are unhappy, I feel I need to let you know.

On a happier note, I hired a library page. She is the daughter of one of our staff. I followed our Personnel Policy in hiring her. She was the only applicant for the position (one other person came in and picked up an application but never returned it). She has really grown up in the library and spent a lot of time here so it is really working out well.
