Summer Reading for children starts Tuesday, June 17.

We just completed a pretty big project! We shifted some stuff around and moved the new books from a free-standing bookcase to book cases on the wall. It really opened up the space and allows us to better display our collection. We have heard many compliments.

We will not be getting anymore free Covid tests. The Michigan Department of Health and Human Service Library Partnership for At-Home Tests Program has ended.

We will have to start locking our studio spaces upstairs on the second floor. Someone helped themselves to the snacks in a cabinet and left a mess.

I'm very excited to say I found a computer company! They are very well-known to the Lakeland Library Co-Op and are willing to come all the way down here. They here for one day and fixed many of the bugs I couldn't take care of.
